

Our Concierge is at your Service

Running a business takes time, and we know that you may not have much to spare when it comes to managing the details of everyday life. Whether you need help finding the right CPA, attorney, or even the best price on your next flight, CommerceWest Bank's concierge is available to help. Each of our regional offices has a full-time concierge on staff to serve as a resource for our clients.

Your Success is Our Success

Our team of specially-trained professionals take networking to a new level by referring business back to our clients. We believe that shared success is critical and is just one more way we partner with our valued clients. Our concierge staff can also assist in scheduling banking appointments or reserving conference rooms for important meetings.
